

>>SPEAKER BIO

Jeff Baxter (D.Min., Fuller Theological Seminary) has over 15 years of youth, young adult and family ministry experience. He has served in various positions and different size churches and a parachurch ministry.

Dr. Baxter received his Bachelors degree from Hope College and his Master of Divinity from Columbia Biblical Seminary. Jeff has ministered in over thirteen countries and has been a featured speaker at various youth and family events including the National Youth Workers Convention (NYWC). He is currently working at Foothills Bible Church (fbcfamilylife.org) in Littleton, Colorado as the Pastor of Singles and Student Ministries.

With his passion for the next generation to become mature followers of Jesus as they head into college, he wrote Following Jesus into College and Beyond (Zondervan). He is working on his second book in the area of "Intergenerational Youth Ministry" available in 2011 with Zondervan. He is also a freelance writer for Salem Publishing on (ChristianCollegeLink.com) and an affiliate faculty member at Colorado Christian University.

He has been married to Laurie for over fifteen years and they live in Littleton, Colorado with their three children, Lillian, Levi and Lara. You can stay up to date with Jeff's ministry on his blog (sacredoutfitter.blogspot.com). Jeff presents the ParenTeen and HURT seminars.